KEY DATES

Saturday, June 27	Parade Route 5K and 1K kids run
Saturday, July 11	Lizard Breath Fenceline 7.5 miles
Saturday, September 26	Valley of the Flowers Half-Marathon

Hello out there in Lompoc Valley Distance Club Land

The closure of La Purisima Mission State Historic Park September 1 would have a big effect on the Lompoc Valley Distance Club schedule. We currently have three events at the Mission: the Ray Gil 5K/10K in May, the Lizard Breath in July and the Valley of the Flowers Half-Marathon in September. Will La Purisima be open on September 26, 2009, when the 33rd annual Valley of the Flowers is slated? We don't have the official word on that yet. At a meeting of the half-marathon committee on June 16, we decided to stay the course, acting on faith that the Mission will, somehow, stay open. If the Mission is closed, we cancel for this year.

In the meantime, the Parade Route Run on Saturday, June 27th is a go. See the announcement in this newsletter and give Wayne Davis a buzz if you want to help. It's a fun, well-organized event. Wayne's e-mail is runwithme.w@verizon.net, his phone is 735-7177.

Also, the Lizard Breath at the Mission on July 11th will go on as planned. I've got Nancy to help with registration, Wayne as a timer, Olga Lucaric, Mary Lou Seelandt and Janis Hunt to help with the course marking, but could use some course monitors. E-mail fuzziesareus@yahoo.com or call me at 736-5435.

Yours in the spirit of good fun in the great outdoors
Lizard Breath AI

VALLEY OF THE FLOWERS HALF-MARATHON. As many of you may already know La Purisima Mission State Historical Park is on the closure hit list again this year. Since there is no definite word yet that the Mission is going to close by September 1, it has been decided to keep the half-marathon scheduled for September 26. The committee talked about trying to move the half up to the end of August; however, it was felt that it was too difficult to try to reschedule, the weather might be too hot, and the big reason – the difficulty in contacting everyone who had already received a brochure in the mail or picked one up at a race. In years past most of the registration comes in before the pre-registration deadline so if the half has to be cancelled all those already registered can be contacted and their entry fees refunded. Those of us who are out at the Mission on a regular basis are hoping that “our” Mission will not close. Keep tuned for more information on the half-marathon and the Mission.

VALLEY OF THE FLOWERS HALF-MARATHON SCHOLARSHIPS. The 2009 scholarships were awarded to Cabrillo High School students Katherine Avila and David Fraats and Lompoc High School students Kaitlin Munoz and Kyle Pickles. And we have already received a thank you note from David Fraats and Katherine Avila.

LOMPOC VALLEY DISTANCE CLUB WEB SITE. THE NEW WEB SITE ADDRESS IS:
<http://members.impulse.net/~lvdc/>. If you haven't been on our web page recently, check it out. Ron Cortopassi has added new links, current and past newsletters, race results, and flyers.

PARADE ROUTE 5K. Volunteers needed to assist with the Parade Route 1K/5K on Saturday, June 27, 2009, from 7:30 AM to 9:30 AM. Registration, refreshment tables, course monitors, finisher results board, water stations, and course monitors positions are available. Your participation will ensure kids and adults a fun healthy event to raise donations for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Contact Event Directors A. Lee and Wayne Davis at 735-7177.
